Nixon Welcomed Home; Made No Secret Deals

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Returning from his historic journey to China, President Nixon has told the nation his talks with Communist leaders sowed the seeds for "a more-enduring structure for peace" without secret deals undercutting any ally.

He sought upon his return to soothe conservatives fretting about his pledge to ultimately withdraw all U.S. troops from Taiwan—an effort being continued today in a meeting with congressional leaders. "We did not bring back any written or unwritten agreement that will guarantee peace in our time," Nixon said in nationally televised remarks minutes after he concluded his 12-day, 20,395-mile trip to the long-hostile and isolated Asian nation.

But, he said to the cheers of several thousand persons jammed into a hangar at Andrews Air Force Base for star-spangled welcome-home ceremonies, "We made some necessary and important beginnings."

Nixon delivers a more-detailed private report today at a mid-morning meeting with congressional leaders, then meets with his Cabinet.

Even as he flew home from China and what he called a "week of intensive talks at the highest level," several congressional leaders praised his journey. Among the warm endorsements was one from a longtime administration critic, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

But some conservatives in Nixon's own Republican party fretted about his pledge to ultimately withdraw U.S. troops from Taiwan.

Nixon sought in his airport speech to reassure them that the communique pledge would not undermine the Nationalist Chinese regime of Chiang Kai-shek.

The communique restated "established policy" toward Taiwan, he said, adding: "We will not negotiate the fate of other nations behind their backs, and we did not do so in Peking. There were no secret deals of any kind."

The President cited his agreements with Premier Chou En-lai to broaden trade, to develop cultural, educational and journalistic exchanges and to expand contact between the two governments.

Beaming and waving to the crowd after his blue-and-white jet, the "Spirit of '76," poked its nose into the crowded hangar, Nixon went before the television cameras "to sum up the results of the trip and ... put it in perspective."

"We have started the long process of building a bridge across that gulf" which for 22 years has separated the United States and mainland China, he said.

Grant to Hope to Fight Drugs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eleven drug abuse prevention programs in Arkansas have been approved by the Office of Economic Opportunity for grants of $2,200 each, Rep. John P. Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., said Monday.

The grants will go to programs at Batesville, Blytheville, Fayetteville, Hope, Hot Springs, Jonesboro, Pine Bluff, Newport, Springdale and two in Little Rock, he said.

City Increases Electric Rates

Electric bills for the month of February which are now being delivered to the customers of Hope's Municipal Electric System will have 1 mill per kilowatt hour added to cover the increasing cost of fuel. The curtailment of natural gas to electric generating stations has caused power companies to have to go to a much more expensive fuel. The use of fuel oil instead of natural gas presently costs 2½ times as much to produce a kilowatt hour of electricity.

Hope's wholesale rate, and the retail rates to the user, are based on a fuel cost of 25c per million B.T.U., roughly 1,000 cubic feet of gas. Supplementing the gas supply with fuel oil has raised the average cost to 40c for the same amount of heat. The fuel prices have been somewhat above the 25c on which the rates were based but for sometime the Hope System had been absorbing the increase that most power companies were already passing on to their users. The recent jump in fuel cost has forced the municipal system to apply the fuel adjustment for the first time ever. Gas companies have already been granted a large increase in price of natural gas and, even if the shortage of gas in Arkansas is corrected by additional supply, the price is due to get higher.

The energy crisis, which is nationwide, assures that more expensive fuels will have to be used. It is hoped that the 1 mill fuel adjustment will hold for the next few years, but there is no assurance that this will be true. Present development of nuclear energy in Arkansas could have a stabilizing effect on energy cost for several years.

Albert Graves, Chairman of the Water & Light Commission, said that he hated to see even this very small increase added to the bills, since it is the first time in history that electric prices have had to be raised at all. Hope's rates have been lowered twice since 1958 and the city now enjoys some of the lowest rates in Arkansas. While several utility companies, including the Southwest Arkansas Rural Electrification Administration, are asking for increased rates, the Water & Light Commission feels that this system can operate under its present low rates except for fuel adjustment charges, which will be a very small part of the cost of total service.

Split Senate Takes Up School Busing

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sharply divided Senate today returns to the bitter dispute over busing of school children for desegregation purposes.

Forces supporting a tough antibusing stance appeared nearly evenly matched against those backing a milder approach. Because of a complex parliamentary situation, it will take at least five separate votes to produce a settlement, but that could come by day's end.

The Senate Monday considered other aspects of the bill authorizing $23 billion for higher education and $1.5 billion for school desegregation. Senators adopted a proposal aimed at ending discrimination against women from grade school through graduate school.

The Senate has agreed to wind up all work on the bill Wednesday.

Civil rights forces were cautiously hopeful they had the votes to reverse a 43-40 tally last Friday in favor of a far-reaching antibusing rider. They hope to knock it out of the bill. This rider, sponsored by Republican Whip Robert Griffin, would strip federal courts of the power to issue busing orders in desegregation cases.

The compromise would preserve the present powers of the courts to use busing as a remedy if necessary to end state-imposed school segregation.

Both the Griffin and Scott-Mansfield amendments have been adopted tentatively but neither has been finally riveted into the bill.

Senate leaders said they expected at least 97 senators to be on hand for these tests.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., absent more than two years because of a stroke, will be missing, as will Sens. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., and Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash.

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate reversed itself today and voted to defeat an amendment of Sen. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., seeking to eliminate power of the federal courts to issue busing orders in school desegregation cases.

Vietnamese Kill 82 Enemy Troops

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces claimed 82 enemy troops killed and 15 captured in the northern provinces, and U.S. B52 bombers flew more heavy raids in the region today.

The U.S. Command reported its 67th raid inside North Vietnam this year, a strike by an F105 fighter-bomber against an antiaircraft radar two miles from the coastal city of Dong Hoi and 40 miles north of the demilitarized zone. Results were not known, and there was no damage to U.S. aircraft, the command said.

The South Vietnamese command announced that a 1,000-man force had ended a two-day reconnaissance operation three miles inside Cambodia about 130 miles northwest of Saigon. Eight enemy were killed, and there were no South Vietnamese casualties, the command said.

In one of six clashes reported in the Hue-Da Nang area today and Monday, reinforcements called in to aid an ambushed artillery column made a successful counterattack and killed 21 enemy soldiers, the South Vietnamese command said.

Concealed enemy mortars fired 80 rounds at the column 17 miles southwest of Hue, wounding four South Vietnamese soldiers and damaging two trucks slightly.

But the reinforcements attacked the enemy gunners, capturing a mortar and other weapons. One soldier in the relief force was wounded, the command reported.

U.S. B52 bombers for the third day made bombing runs against what senior officers described as a continuing enemy buildup in the country's northern quarter. Five formations of stratofortresses dropped their bombs in a valley about 20 miles south of Hue and on base camps about 25 miles south of Da Nang.

President Nguyen Van Thieu said he expects a major enemy offensive in the northern or central sectors next summer.

Thieu, however, did not rule out the earlier offensive which U.S. officials have been predicting.

No Birth Celebration

HARRISTOWN, Ill. (AP) — As a Leap Year baby, Valentine Nix should be celebrating his 20th birthday today at the age of 80—right?

Wrong! Nix was born in 1892 and his second birthday—by Leap Year standards a birthday every four years—would have been Feb. 29, 1900. Only there wasn't any Feb. 29 that year.

The reason we have Leap Year, anyway, is that a true year—one revolution of the earth around the sun—is 365¼ days long. Adding an extra day in February every fourth year takes care of the extra one-fourth day.

Only the World Almanac

notes that a true solar year isn't precisely 365¼ days. It's actually 11 minutes and 14 seconds less than 365¼ days. By the time a few centuries roll by, that's quite a few extra minutes. No one worried about it too much because no one knew about it until 730 A.D. when the Venerable Bede, an Anglo-Saxon monk, told the world.

But no one did anything until 1582 when Pope Gregory XIII was told that all those minutes had produced a 10-day surplus.

The Pope solved the problem by declaring the day following Oct. 4, 1582 would be called Oct. 15, 1582.

To avoid similar problems in the future, calendar makers decided that three of every four centesimal years—those marking the turn of a century would be common rather than leap years and therefore have no Feb. 29.

Thus, Nix missed a Leap Year birthday in 1900.

Amnesty for War Dodgers Has Become Hot Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — A divided Senate panel has started a study of the potentially explosive issue of whether a nation with over 50,000 combat deaths in Vietnam should grant amnesty to the thousands who refused to go to war.

The Senate Judiciary subcommittee Monday heard Selective Service Director Curtis W. Tarr say that amnesty would wreck the draft, undermine discipline in the armed forces and set a dangerous and undesirable precedent for the future if granted while fighting the war is over and U. S. prisoners of war released.

Tarr said recent Supreme Court decisions have created "a reasonable area for careful consideration of leniency in cases of men who now may claim conscientious-objector status but could not at the time they left the country to escape the draft."

He said he has directed local boards to "by all means give that man a chance of reopening his classification."

But he said men under indictment are beyond his control and any decision about their treatment is up to the Justice Department.

Local Business Changes Hands

John B. "Jack" Lowe announces the purchase of Andrews Screen & Glass Co. located at 111 Front Street. The transaction was made February 26.

Mr. Lowe said the new business will operate as Glass Shop, Inc., continuing at the same location and will be open for business on Wednesday, March 1.

The transaction includes everything except the air conditioning and sheet metal operations.

Glass Shop Inc. will handle store fronts design and installed; plate glass, mirror, furniture top, glass shelving, screens, window and auto glass, aluminum awnings both home and industrial and custom work picture framing and matting.

Kennedy Calls South Soldiers Traitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil War or War Between the States or War for Southern Independence was refought in a Senate hearing room Monday, and one Southerner is not forgetting it.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., revived the issue during subcommittee hearings on granting amnesty to draft resisters when he remarked that "after the Civil War we gave amnesty to traitors."

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., who was seated next to Kennedy, said no one was going to call his Confederate-soldier grandfather a traitor or other citizens from the South, either.

Kennedy said he wouldn't refer to such people that way himself, but others have so described them.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich.,

asked the South Carolinian whether Confederates such as Thurmond's grandfather weren't "responding to a deep moral conviction" similar to that held by some young men resisting service in the Vietnam war.

Thurmond replied the Confederates fought for the rights of the states, and to call them traitors "would be entirely out of line."

"I respect the convictions of your grandfather," Hart replied, smiling, "and I'm glad he was granted amnesty."

Thurmond, still angry about the incident later, ordered the stenographic record checked to insure Kennedy's quote was correct and pledged to use the word against him "when he runs for president."

U.S., China Talks to May Continue at UN

By SPENCER DAVIS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sino-logist Robert Barnett says the United States and China may pick the United Nations headquarters as the site for continuing the dialogue begun in Peking by President Nixon and Premier Chou En-lai.

Barnett said in an interview Monday that George Bush, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, may well continue the talks by meeting with his Chinese counterpart, Ambassador Huang Hua.

Three Seeking Re-election

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Three legislators announced Monday that they would seek re-election. A fourth said he was bowing out. All are Democrats.

Sen. W. E. "Gene" Rainwater of Greenwood, who is in his first Senate term after serving four years in the House, said he would run for re-election.

He resides in the new District 10, which includes the southern part of Sebastian County and all of Polk, Scott and Sevier counties.

Rep. Paul Henry of Batesville made the surprise announcement that he would not run for another term in District 46, which includes most of Independence County.

Henry, general manager of Banquet Foods in Batesville, said that because of his business interests he was leaving active politics.

Sen. George Locke of Hamburg said he would seek a second term in District 25, which includes Ashley, Bradley, Cleveland and Lincoln counties.

Rep. Frank Hensell of Pine Bluff announced that he would run for a second term in District 52, which is composed of Grant County and parts of Jefferson County.

In another development, Michael K. Wilson, a member of Jacksonville City Council and a former deputy attorney general, announced that he would run for a vacant House position in District 1, which is north Pulaski County. He's a Democrat, too.

Heat from the sun soaked up during the summer and autumn frequently keeps the earth relatively warm long beyond Dec. 21, the first day of winter.

who do not have diplomatic relations. Kissinger said the contact point would be similar to Warsaw which still provides formal channels for such talks. There also has been speculation about Stockholm or the Swedish Embassy in Peking as a contact point.

Barnett pointed out that Peking refuses to send any representative to the United States while the Chinese Nationalist ambassador is in Washington representing Taiwan. However, the U.N. headquarters in New York apparently would be acceptable because the building is legally outside the United States.

U.S. to Stand by Commitments

By KENNETH J. FREED
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon took the opportunity of a large and friendly welcome-home crowd to say what protocol ruled out in China: He stands by the U.S. commitment to defend Taiwan.

"With respect to Taiwan—there were no secret deals of any kind," Nixon told the thousands who jammed a hangar at Andrews Air Force Base Monday night to cheer his return from the precedent-shattering trip.

The concessions Nixon made by publicly announcing for the first time the United States ultimately will withdraw all its forces from Nationalist-controlled Taiwan has raised criticism and concern over a possible sellout.

In this vein, much was made of the fact that Nixon, in his part of the joint U.S.-Chinese communique, made no mention of the 1954 treaty committing the United States to defend Taiwan.

American officials, including presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger, have said Nixon did not reaffirm the treaty in China out of respect for his Chinese hosts.

Electric Rate Hike Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Public Service Commission took under advisement Monday an application by Southwest Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corp. for a rate increase.

No one appeared to oppose the application at a PSC hearing.

The cooperative has headquarters at Texarkana. It serves 13,600 persons in Columbia, Hempstead, Howard, Lafayette, Little River, Miller, Polk and Sevier counties.

Kelley Presswood, general manager, said the rate revision would raise gross revenues about 10.6 per cent, amounting to $235,392 annually, based on the 12 months ended last Oct. 31.

The average increase in the rate per average residential customer would be about 12 per cent, he said.

The Nixon-Chou communique provides for a senior U.S. representative to visit Peking as the need arises.

As for other points, Barnett minimized the possibility of trade or an outburst of tourism and travel in China.

He said the Chinese have also been highly bureaucratic in trade relations, and already have found Japanese, German, Italian and Canadian firms to deal with.

But he felt no such shackles when he returned to Washington.

"We have agreed that we will not negotiate the fate of other nations behind their backs," the President said, "and we did not do so in Peking. There were no secret deals of any kind. We have done all this without giving up any United States commitment to any other country."

It is doubtful, though, the President's arrival statement will ease political criticism of his Taiwan concessions, a situation of serious concern to administration officials.

Even before Nixon's arrival, government sources had opened a campaign to explain the seemingly one-sided U.S. settlement in which the Chinese made only minor concessions.

On the one hand, these officials said, the President simply was following his Nixon doctrine of withdrawing troops and leaving to the allies the burden of their own defense.

In addition, they say, the very fact that Nixon's trip opened communications with the previously isolated Asian giant justified whatever Nixon yielded in Peking.

The President gave substance to these arguments Monday night. Talking of Taiwan, he

Warmer Weather Is Predicted

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Warm weather is expected to continue in Arkansas, but the chance of precipitation has returned to the state's weather picture.

Increasing cloudiness is expected to begin in the southern portion of the state this afternoon and spread over the state tonight as moisture continues to increase from the gulf area. Showers and a few thunderstorms are likely tonight in south Arkansas and in the rest of the state Wednesday.

Highs Monday climbed into the 70s over most of the state and reached 81 degrees at Texarkana. Even warmer readings are expected today. Highs Wednesday should be in the mid 60s northwest to low 80s southeast.

Cooler temperatures are expected Thursday. A deep low pressure storm system was moving eastward this morning and was expected to bring a cool front into the state Wednesday night or early Thursday.

Lows tonight should be mostly in the 50s.

No rainfall was reported in the state during the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m.

Murder Charge Is Filed

MOUNT IDA, Ark. (AP) — Jimmy Loudermilk, 23, of Black Springs (Montgomery County) was charged Monday with second-degree murder, Deputy Pros. Atty. Gayle Ford said.

The matter was raised Monday when a prospective juror, William Hotaling, first responded to defense questioning by saying he couldn't give Miss Davis a fair trial because she is an avowed Communist.

But later, Hotaling said he would not consider the Communist background during the trial.

Superior Court Judge Richard E. Aranson said he would rule

Tucker Running for Attorney General

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — James Guy Tucker Jr., who emerged from political obscurity two years ago to win election as prosecutor in the state's most populous district, announced Monday that he would run for attorney general this year.

The announcement by the 28-year-old Tucker had been expected since he said Saturday that he would have a news conference on Monday.

Potential opponents include Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett, Judith Rogers and John Harmon of North Little Rock and Roger Glasgow of Nashville, who have indicated an interest in the race, but Tucker was the first to announce as an official candidate.

The seat will be vacated by Atty. Gen. Ray Thornton, who says he will run for Congress in the 4th District. Glasgow is one of Thornton's assistants. Griffin was Thornton's main opponent in 1970.

Tucker said he felt he was realizing the goals he had set during his 14 months as prosecutor—a reduction in the backlog of criminal cases, a 24-hour service by the prosecutor's office, termination of private practice by members of the prosecutor's staff and vigorous prosecution of drug pushers and polluters.

Tucker represents the 6th Judicial Circuit, which is made up of Pulaski and Perry counties.

The candidate said he would retain some of the programs instituted by Thornton, especially those in consumer protection, revision of the state's criminal code and consolidation of legal services.

Tucker said the attorney general's office should provide legal counsel for the public interest. "It should explore and perhaps hold hearings on such issues as state compensation to victims of crime, court reform and alternatives to incarceration of criminals," he said.

Tucker, a former Marine who also spent 14 months in Vietnam as a war correspondent, is a graduate of Harvard University with a law degree from the University of Arkansas.

Earthquake Shakes Japan

TOKYO (AP) — A long, rolling earthquake shook houses and knocked over vases in Tokyo and its vicinity tonight.

Police said there were no reports of casualties or of serious damage in the Tokyo area. But reports from Hachijyo Island, closer to the quake's center, said roads were cracked, some walls collapsed and there was other damage to houses.

The observatory said the quake registered six on a Japanese scale of seven on the island, which is 200 miles south of Tokyo. It placed the focus of the quake 62 miles east of Hachijyo. Seismographs in Washington, D.C., recorded the quake at 7 on the Richter scale.

Chaplain of Senate Dies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. R. D. Adams, chaplain of the Arkansas Senate, died Monday at the age of 74.

Communism an Issue

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Communism has become an immediate issue in the trial of Angela Davis, the black militant facing murder, kidnap and conspiracy charges.

The matter was raised Monday when a prospective juror, William Hotaling, first responded to defense questioning by saying he couldn't give Miss Davis a fair trial because she is an avowed Communist.

But later, Hotaling said he would not consider the Communist background during the trial.

Superior Court Judge Richard E. Aranson said he would rule today on a defense motion challenging Hotaling's seating on the jury on grounds of prejudice.

After the first day's proceedings Monday, three of the first 12 prospective jurors were excused—two 18-year-old students for personal hardship and a woman who said she believed Miss Davis, who is free on $102,500 bail, is probably guilty.

Miss Davis, 28, is charged with murder, kidnap and conspiracy in the abortive courtroom escape attempt at the Marin County Civic Center on Aug. 7, 1970. Four persons, including a judge, died in the shootout.

He agreed to help the FBI partly because he was a Catholic, partly because of unspoken patriotism and partly because of personal hopes for parole after being caught carrying illegal mail for Berrigan.

Douglas, an admitted con man who spent seven of his 31 years in jail, is the government's star witness.

Douglas, then attending Bucknell University on a prison study-release program that left him outside the walls in the daytime, said he was recruited by Berrigan in April, 1970 to smuggle letters in and out of prison. Douglas said that he agreed originally out of sympathy for draft board break-ins as a Vietnam protest.

Berrigan is serving a six-year sentence for burning and pouring blood over draft files.

Why did Douglas, serving time for assaulting an FBI agent and passing forged checks, start copying the letters he agreed to carry for Berrigan via his school notebook?

"I knew it was only a matter of time before I was detected ... I knew if I had substantial evidence to produce that authorities would believe what I was telling them, not only about the conversations but also about the letters," he said.

"I became concerned about the goals of these people also the fact that everyone I had met at that time was in the clerical field. I am a Catholic, and I had been brought up as a very strict Catholic."

Berrigan and five other defendants are Catholics—two of them also priests, one a nun, and the other two a former priest married to an ex-nun. The seventh, a Pakistani, is a Moslem.

Douglas was still on the stand when court recessed Monday.

Tennessee Leads in Rabies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee has become the nation's leader in rabies, state health officials said Monday as fox poisoning teams worked against the clock to reduce the fox population before it goes into hibernation for the summer.

Dr. Luther E. Fredrickson, a state veterinarian, said his office has confirmed rabies in 57 animals. Kentucky is next with 54 confirmed cases.

"This is the first time this year that Tennessee has surpassed Kentucky," Fredrickson said.

Most of the confirmed cases have affected foxes, and those animals have been under attack by the Game and Fish Commission poison teams. But numerous cases of the disease have been in domestic dogs, the veterinarian said.

Domestic animals are in

Feared for Catholic Doctrine

By LEE LINDER
Associated Press Writer
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Boyd Douglas Jr. says he became an FBI informer on the Rev. Philip Berrigan because, in part, he was a Roman Catholic and was worried about the ideas of the militant antiwar priest.

"I am a Catholic, and I had been brought up as a very strict Catholic," Douglas said Monday at the trial of Berrigan, and six other persons accused of plotting to kidnap presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger.

Berrigan and Douglas were fellow convicts at the Lewisburg Penitentiary where the government claims the priest masterminded from his prison cell a conspiracy aimed at hastening the pullout of U.S. troops from Vietnam.

It was when he heard about much greater danger of contracting the disease if they are not vaccinated, Fredrickson said. The increase in rabies among domestic animals, shows that pet owners became complacent about having their pets vaccinated during the years when fox rabies was at low ebb, he said.

The Game and Fish Commission's fox control teams report killing about 1,500 foxes, the chief carriers of the disease, in Rutherford and DeKalb counties east of Nashville.

The reduction in the fox population will help break the rabies cycle, Fredrickson said, but significant results will not be seen until next year.

The teams moved into nearby Cannon County Monday and are scheduled to begin work in Warren County next week.

Grant for El Dorado

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Hill-Burton Act grant of $25,000 for the purchase of beds for Warner-Brown Hospital at El Dorado was announced Monday by the office of Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark.

His office said the money would be used to replace 81 beds, buy 55 additional beds and modernize patient output facilities.

Soroyan Survives on Loneliness

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — William Saroyan, his face bordered by shaggy gray hair and adorned with a walrus moustache, feels he thrives in what he calls "majestic loneliness."

"The making of anything really worth making calls for an isolation," says the 63-year-old author. "Isolation and necessity for a prolonged concentration over a long period of time make the artist almost antisocial."

Saroyan, who has been telling stories about life in and around Fresno for almost half a century, continued in a rare interview: "The loneliness is not desolate, abject loneliness, but a kind of majestic loneliness—a kinship with larger things. They may be isolated, but they're not alone."

Saroyan still writes daily because "I'm a writer full time, all the time."

"And in my 64th year it's sensible and more creative—other than creative loafing, that is, and I can't do that."

Saroyan's writing has combined probes into mysteries of living and dying with glimpses of the unique character of individuals. To achieve the sense that "each one is a distinctly separate person," he employs a philosophy that "speed and brevity is the point, out of which comes unified work."

His prime example of speed was "The Time of Your Life," the 1940 Pulitzer Prize winner penned during six days of almost constant effort.

The play, for which Saroyan refused the Pulitzer because he wouldn't be "patronized," was revived in 1969 and currently is playing in Washington, D.C.

"If he knows somebody, Saroyan is very warm," said a local friend, sculptor Varaz Samuelian. "He doesn't pay attention to people with great position or in big business."

Saroyan described his latest of more than 60 books, "Places Where I've Done Time," as a collection of 84 short stories ranging from unpleasant times of his life to mixed pleasures of putting in time in Paris and Fresno.

Saroyan's orphanage time was at age 3 after his father died. His mother brought the family together again later, providing him an American childhood blended with Armenian ancestry that flavored Saroyan's mostly autobiographical short stories, plays and novels.

"Anywhere you spend time, you do time," the author said.

"I spent time in an orphanage and three years in the Army. That was jail time to me. Otherwise, you simply 'put up' the rest of the time. We've been putting up with dismal weather these last three weeks, haven't we?"

Baptist Frown on New Hospital

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Baptist Medical Center System may not utilize its 439-bed facility here if Little Rock Land Co. constructs a new 300-bed hospital, a system official said Monday.

H. T. Lynn, associate executive director of the system, said the system, which is building a 540-bed hospital, had planned to keep perhaps 300 of the beds in its existing facility in use.

Lynn said the plans called for operating 200 of the existing beds for medical and surgical patients, 50 for extended care patients and 50 for physical therapy.

However, he said, if Little Rock Land Co., a corporation formed by Little Rock physicians, does build the 300-bed hospital it has announced it plans to construct, the system may not keep its existing facility in operation.

Lynn disputed the company's assertion that another hospital is needed in Little Rock. He said the hospital proposed by the company would only be "a duplication of existing facilities."

PLANES FOR MISSIONS

NEW YORK (AP) — United Methodist missionary operations in the Congo include some new equipment — three small planes, called Phoenix I, II and III, which recently were flown there to be used in carrying on mission projects.

NOT A NEW GIRL in town, but an old favorite back for her first made-in-America movie in eight years. Ava Gardner plays Lillie Langtry, English actress of the 1880s, in the upcoming "The Life and Times of Judge Roy Bean." The film, costarring Paul Newman, was shot on location in Arizona.

Memories Like Links That Bind Our Minds

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Memories are the links that bind our lives together. They make us what we are.

Add up a man's memories and you know him.

They are the silent record of his defeats and glories, his schemes, his dreams. They define him.

You have a fine roster of memories yourself if you can look back and remember when: Sideburns and flaring pants were as popular with the youths of the late 1920s as they are with the youths of today.

Every hard-working man took a nap Sunday afternoon. The children playing quietly downstairs could hear him snoring in an upstairs bedroom as his body repaired the ravages of the week.

One of the fears grandma had for grandpa was that if he didn't stop twirling a toothpick around in his mouth after eating that he'd swallow it accidentally and die of peritonitis.

For perhaps a majority of Americans, hell was as real and terrible as death.

Any kid who didn't have to trudge at least a mile to school led a pampered life.

Every home had three rooms where family problems were publicly thrashed out—the kitchen, the dining room table, and the front porch swing.

The approved cure for childish tantrums was a dash of cold water in the face.

Every child had a personal diary he expected would make him immortal. It usually trailed off after he had made a few comments on the weather and hinted at dark and awful secrets in his life he didn't dare trust himself to put down.

A pretty girl was often described as "a real humdinger."

Flowers played a bigger role in the ordinary lives of people. If someone in the family was ill, the neighbors trooped in with armfuls of home-grown flowers as well as gifts of home-cooked food.

If you got something in your eye and couldn't get it out yourself, you went to the drug-gist instead of to a doctor or hospital clinic.

A juvenile delinquent was a kid who won all the marbles from the other members of his school class and wouldn't give any of them back.

Everybody thought the neighborhood hired man was getting too big for his britches when he announced he would no longer cut the grass for less than 75 cents.

A woman teacher who went to the school picnic wearing slacks could figure she'd better start looking for another job in another town next year—unless she was the niece of the president of the school board.

It was all right to lock your front door if you left your home, but the neighbors thought you unfriendly if you didn't leave the back door unlocked—just in case someone wanted to drop in and borrow something.

Helen and Sue Bottel The Generation Gap

Happy Leap Year to You, Too

DEAR HELEN AND SUE: How can you be friends with a girl without getting stuck to her? I'm 21 and she's 20, and this being leap year, she asked me to a dance—sorta kidding in earnest.

Things went along that way for a while. Usually when we dated, she did the asking, but she's a good guy and I liked her friendship.

Now it's getting so she won't go out with anyone else. Then she'll tell me how she turns down dates—all for me.

Lately things are getting thicker on her part. She hangs all over me at parties, and if I look at another girl, something goes on, and the next time I look, that girl looks the other way. She's probably been warned.

The point is, I don't want to get married. I don't want to be tied down. I don't have the money for big dates every weekend, and I'm not in love. But I'd like to keep her as a friend. How do I get her off my back?—JACK

DEAR JACK: Stop playing leap year games—with the girl making all the moves. Otherwise, she'll herd all your "I don't's" into one big "I do," that you may regret before you're back from your honeymoon.—HELEN

DEAR JACK:

You can't have "just a friend," when she wants to be a GIRL FRIEND! I'd suggest you break it off honestly but gently (if that's possible), then give her time to get over this infatuation before you try for friendship.—SUE

DEAR HELEN AND SUE: My mother is a nut on good spelling. I'm the world's worst—so would you please fix up any mistakes I make? Thanks.

I just got my first boy friend and he lives in another town, so we write letters. The other day I left an unfinished letter in my drawer, and when I went to answer it, several of my words had been corrected. I know I wouldn't have done it because they looked fine to me the way they were, so I guess Mom has been snooping. She just can't help being teacherish. Should I come right out and ask her not to read my mail—which may cause a fight—or what? I'll bet she made those corrections without even realizing it, because she's so used to fixing my homework.—NO SECRETS BUT WANT TO KEEP THEM ANYWAY

DEAR NSBWTKTA: Maybe your mother doesn't yet realize that when a girl is old enough to correspond with a boy, her correspondence is off-limits to parents, unless she gives permission. And, I'm old enough!" mumble young.

Why not bring up the subject of personal privacy at the dinner table? Be sure you get the word "trust" in there often.—HELEN

DEAR NO SECRETS: And afterwards, print on your stationery box: "Personal. Private. No Admittance and Please Don't Correct the Spelling."

(That is, if your mother has a good sense of humor.) SUE

DEAR RAP:

My fiance has big knuckles, so he thinks his little finger is the only one suitable for wearing rings—otherwise they are loose and catch on machinery, etc. Would it be okay to put his wedding ring (it will be a double ring ceremony) on the fifth finger? I really want him to wear one. WONDER-RING

DEAR WONDER-RING: Maybe this isn't exactly "proper," but we say, where the ring fits, wear it.—SUE AND HELEN

Wimmell Farm Sold to Merck Family

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wimmell, McCaskill, have sold their Knebworth Angus and Broiler Farm to Mrs. Nellie Merck and sons, Denzil and William. Mrs. Merck has learned the broiler business by caring for Mr. Wimmell's 24,000 birds in addition to operating an adjoining cattle farm.

The Wimmells came to Arkansas 16 years ago from New Mexico where he was manager of a Chamber of Commerce and before that an editor-publisher of newspapers for 26 years, 20 years in Colorado. They are retiring and moving this week to Hot Springs, 207 Sunset Bay Drive near Lake Hamilton.

In her farming operations Mrs. Merck, besides her sons, will be assisted by her father, D. H. Goodin, who presently lives east of Bleivins but plans to move to McCaskill when he sells his farm. Mrs. Merck has a daughter, Mrs. Doug Jester, and a sister, Mrs. James J. Kneberlin, living on farms nearby, and a brother in California has recently purchased farm land in the area, including a portion of the Eli Hill farm. Mrs. Merck, her parents, children and sisters are all former residents of California.

While living in Hempstead County Mr. and Mrs. Wimmell have been active in the McCaskill Rural Community Improvement Club and in the First Presbyterian Church, Lions Club, DAR, and Friday Music Club in Hope. Mr. Wimmell has been a director of the Arkansas Angus Association for several years. Mrs. Merck has also purchased Mr. Wimmell's Angus herd and will continue to raise registered cattle.

Stephens Romps in Class A Meet

LITTLE ROCK AP — A guy who stands 6-foot-8 probably doesn't have to prove it, but Major Jones did, anyway: he'll be a big factor in settling the Class A senior boys state basketball championship.

Jones crammed in 40 points, 19 field goals, 2x2 free throws despite a bad ankle and lots of rest in the second and fourth periods Monday night to lead Desha Central to a 99-47 blitz of Humnoke.

In other games, Stephens romped over Tuckerman 88-50 and Hardy Highland came from 12 points behind to win by 27, downing NLR Oak Grove 72-45.

Jones dominated rebounding in Desha Central's conquest of Humnoke and was an intimidating defender when he was in action.

Leo Horn scored 25 for the victors and David Christian put in 15. High for Humnoke was Robert Johnson's 15.

Stephens' Roadrunners trailed Tuckerman by one point, 18-17, after the first quarter, but then drew away to a 39-30 halftime lead.

Tuckerman slipped out of sight as Stephens gunned in 26 points for four for the losers in the third quarter.

Ralph Porchia had 16 points to pace Stephens' balanced attack, which showed Jimmy Jenkins with 15, Terry Yarbrough with 14, Robert Took 12 and Harold Charles 19. Tuckerman's tops was 10 by William Porter.

Oak Grove pushed into a 7-0 lead, then a 14-2 edge against Highland, but Highland rallied to hold the halftime margin, 30-28.

Steve Stroud, who had 28 points for the night, got 15 in the final quarter as Highland turned an early scare into a late runaway victory. Jim Hanson added 20 for the winners.

Kevin Hamilton, with 16 points, was the only Oak Grove player to score in double figures.

Ouachita Clinches Tie for AIC Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A 40-point explosion by Bill Hodges and Tommy Patterson in the first half let Ouachita cruise to a 99-61 victory over Arkansas College Monday night to keep the Tigers' AIC lead unimpaired. They clinched a tie for the league title.

Southern State continued to haunt the OBU heels from a half-game back by rushing past Henderson 83-68. Both games were in Arkadelphia.

In other league action, Arkansas AM&N bombed Arkansas Tech 104-91, Hendrix edged University of Arkansas-Monticello 86-80 and Harding squeezed by U of A-Little Rock 88-66.

Hodges had 22 points and Patterson 18 for OBU in the first half. They played only sparingly in the second half and finished with 26 and 22 points, respectively.

At one point OBU led by 46 points.

Southern State, which has a shot at a tie for the AIC crown, shot nearly 70 per cent from the field. Johnny White got 26 and Al Flanagan 23 for the Mulieriders. Larry Bray hit 29 for the Reddies.

If OBU beats Tech at Russellville Thursday night, the Tigers alone will be champs. If they lose, Southern State gets a share.

Joe Bynes hit 37 points to lead AM&N over Tech at Pine Bluff and Ken Clemmons dumped in 25 for the Golden Lions. Tech's best were Ron Edmonds with 22 and David Combs with 21.

Tech led 46-44 at halftime.

Tom Vick, who scored 25 points, hit three free throws in the last 30 seconds to clinch the Harding victory. Freddie Dixon scored 23 points for the Bison.

George Pratt and Charlie Johnson each had 21 for UALR.

Hendrix scored 16 points to none for UAM in one spread during the second half to break a 42-42 tie and coast to victory. UAM cut the lead to four late in the game, but never got closer.

Danny Thomas got 21 points for Hendrix, even though he sat out much of the second half. Tommy Poole got 20 for the Warriors. Leroy Kennedy led UAM with 21.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

And then there was one.

Marquette's stunning 70-49 defeat at the hands of Detroit Saturday left the UCLA Bruins as the only unbeaten major college basketball team—and the unanimous choice for the top spot in The Associated Press' nationwide poll of sports writers and broadcasters released today.

UCLA, 23-0 after defeating Pacific-8 rivals Washington State, Oregon and Oregon State last week, garnered all 41 first place votes to lead this week's poll with 820 points.

Marquette, which won its first 22 games of the season, had received one first place vote a week ago. But after bowing to Detroit in their second game since star center Jim Chones signed a contract with the New York Nets of the American Basketball Association, the Warriors dropped from the second spot in the poll to No. 5.

Louisville, 20-2, edged North Carolina, 20-3, for the runner-up spot, but both were well behind UCLA. The Cardinals, who whipped Cincinnati 93-73 in their only outing last week, received 637 votes while the Tar Heels, victors over Georgia Tech and Virginia last week, had 620.

Retaining the fourth spot in this week's rating was Pennsylvania with 573 points. The Quakers upped their record to 20-2 by beating Ivy League rivals Cornell and Columbia over the weekend. Marquette, 22-1 overall but 1-1 since losing Chones, was No. 5 with 442 points.

The next two spots were unchanged, No. 6 going to Long Beach State, 23-3, with 409 points, and No. 7 to Brigham Young, 20-3, with 354. South Carolina and Marshall exchanged the next two places, the 194 Gamecocks moving up to eighth with 321 points and Marshall 22-4, dipping to ninth with 271.

Florida State, 11th last week, climbed into the Top Ten with 235 points, beating out Southwestern Louisiana for the No. 10 spot.

Southwestern Louisiana, 22-3, headed the second 10 with 149 points. Virginia moved from 13th to 12th, Houston from 16th to 13th, Ohio State from 15th to 14th and Hawaii from 17th to 15th.

Michigan, a newcomer to the Top Twenty, grabbed the No. 16 spot, followed by Oral Roberts, Maryland, Missouri and Memphis State.

The Top Twenty, with first place votes in parentheses, won-lost records through games of Saturday, Feb. 26 and total points on the basis of 20 for first, 18 for second, 16, 14, 12, 10, 9, 8, etc.:

1. UCLA (41)	23-0	820

Southwestern Louisiana, ranked No. 11 in the country, completed its regular season with a 90-73 victory over arch-rival Northwestern Louisiana.

Dwight Lamar, the nation's No. 1 scorer, had 33 points and 11 assists for the winners, now 23-3.

"We really hated to lose any games," said Coach Beryl Shipley. "But looking back, three losses don't look that bad. In fact, it looks like a pretty good year. Now we can sit back and see what happens Wednesday when the post-season bids are extended."

Shipley and a flock of other collegiate coaches will be waiting by the telephone Wednesday when the National Collegiate Athletic Association extends its at-large bids for the post-season tournament and the National Invitation Tournament officials start making their bids.

Most conference champions, of course, automatically qualify for the NCAA showdown.

Class B Play Starts

LITTLE ROCK AP — Biggers-Reyno beat a game-long, full-court press and shot defending Class B champion County Line out of the senior boys state basketball tournament, 50-46, here Monday night.

In other games, the cool hand of Ronald Parker iced a 62-59 Thornton victory over Jessieville and Prattville chalked up victory No. 39 against no losses this year by beating Greer's Ferry West Side 72-63.

County Line, with an 18-point outburst in the second quarter, including 10 by Jerry Vest, took a nine-point halftime lead, but it was down to two, 30-28, when the third period ended.

A 10-foot jump shot by Jerry Foster gave Biggers-Reyno the lead with 6:39, but it see-sawed as the teams swapped baskets until a pair of free throws by Carter Rickman put Biggers-Reyno on top to stay in the last two minutes.

Eight free throws on eight attempts in the last 90 seconds saved up the Biggers-Reyno triumph. Rickman led the winners with 19 points. Vest, despite triple coverage, had 22 for the losers.

In Thornton's victory, Parker hit a pair of free throws with four seconds left to clinch the victory over Jessieville.

Marquette, which won its first 22 games of the season, had received one first place vote a week ago. Louisville, 20-2, edged North Carolina, 20-3, for the runner-up spot, but both were well behind UCLA. The Cardinals, who whipped Cincinnati 93-73 in their only outing last week, received 637 votes while the Tar Heels, victors over Georgia Tech and Virginia last week, had 620.

Retaining the fourth spot in this week's rating was Pennsylvania with 573 points. The Quakers upped their record to 20-2 by beating Ivy League rivals Cornell and Columbia over the weekend. Marquette, 22-1 overall but 1-1 since losing Chones, was No. 5 with 442 points.

The next two spots were unchanged, No. 6 going to Long Beach State, 23-3, with 409 points, and No. 7 to Brigham Young, 20-3, with 354. South Carolina and Marshall exchanged the next two places, the 194 Gamecocks moving up to eighth with 321 points and Marshall 22-4, dipping to ninth with 271.

San Diego Padres Are Having Player Trouble

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Buzzie Bavasi, general manager of the Padres, isn't about to jump off the roof of San Diego Stadium over Mike Ivie's attack of homesickness.

"I lived through Sandy Koufax' retirement when I was general manager of the Dodgers, so I can live through this," Bavasi said Monday after the Padres' 19-year-old catching prodigy flew home to Decatur.

It was a bad day all around for the Padres, who lived up to their last-place status by losing baseball players as fast as other teams were gaining them.

While Juan Marichal signed with San Francisco, Billy Williams with the Chicago Cubs, Norm Cash with Detroit, Al Downing and Don Sutton with Los Angeles, Andy Messersmith with California and Deron Johnson with Philadelphia, the Padres were notified that infielder Tommy Dean, 26, was retiring and workhorse relief pitcher Al Severinsen, 27, might follow suit unless traded to an eastern team.

Marichal, an 18-game winner in 1971, agreed to a two-year contract with the Giants for an estimated $140,000 a year. Second baseman Tito Fuentes also agreed to terms and both players were expected in camp today.

Williams, the Cubs' slugging outfielder, signed for an estimated $115,000 after a 1½-hour session with John Holland, club vice president, during which the player said both sides "gave a little." Williams was the last Cub to sign.

Cash, Detroit's hard-hitting first baseman, got a reported $70,000 worth of his last name, leaving pitcher Mickey Lolich and infielder Cesar Gutierrez the only unsigned Tigers.

The signing of Downing and Sutton left pitchers Jose Pena and Mike Strahler as the only Dodgers outside the fold while infielders Ken McMullen and Sandy Alomar are the only unsatisfied Angels following Messersmith's signing for an estimated $70,000.

Two other teams signed the last of their recalcitrants when infielder Fred Stanley okayed his pact with Cleveland and Minnesota inked catcher George Mitterwald and Fred Rico.

But a number of players remained loth to put pen to contract including Oakland's Cy Young Award winner, Vida Blue.

The A's have offered $50,000 while Blue, still at home in Mansfield, La., is demanding $92,500, a raise of $78,000.

Atlanta reliever Cecil Upshaw stormed out of a contract meeting with vice president Paul Richards and told The Atlanta Journal:

"He's going to have to trade me, that's what he's going to have to do. And I hope he does. I don't like Atlanta that much. You've got to go where the money is."

Later, Upshaw said his outburst was "an emotional reaction and I was just upset."

Ivan The Terrible Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — The obituary will take up only a couple of lines of agate type. It will say Ivan Vakturoff, 72, passed away over the weekend. People will glance at the name and shrug.

But Ivan Vakturoff wasn't just another old codger. Thirty years ago, he was "Ivan The Terrible, The Mad Russian," and a big name on the professional wrestling circuit.

Ivan fought them all—Gene Stanley, Mr. America, World champ Jim Londos, Jack Taylor, the Canadian champ, Two Ton Tony Galento, who turned to wrestling after his boxing career was over, and Gorgeous George, among others.

"He didn't brag, but he kept all the clippings and pictures," said Marty Alma, a city employee who met Vakturoff when Ivan's career was just about ending around 1947. Alma was a chief life guard at Coney Island where many wrestlers used to spend their summer days before climbing through the ropes at night.

Civilians Wounded

BELFAST (AP) — Guerrilla assassination squads seriously wounded two more Irish civilians Monday night. Police blamed the outlawed Irish Republican Army but were unable to give a motive.

Lawrence Murtagh, a city welfare department employee, was shot four times outside his father's tavern on a Protestant street. Police said a car drove up to the tavern, a man jumped out and fired the shots and then the car took him away.

A bomb exploded in the cellar of the pub three months ago, killing a 14-year-old boy who worked there.

The other man was shot at his home in a mixed Protestant-Catholic district. Police said a carload of masked men pulled up to the house, three ran inside and opened fire, hitting the man five times.

Runnerup $1,000 awards went to Violet M. Hester of Long Beach, Calif., Debra Hilburn, a 15-year-old Piedmont, Ala., resident, Laura Hynek of Lincoln, Neb., and Laura Quigley, New York City.

Court Won't Hear Appeal

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The U. S. Supreme Court has declined to hold a hearing on the conviction of Ernest A. Bartlett Jr. in the alleged Arkansas Loan & Thrift Corp. fraud case, the U. S. attorney's office said Monday.

Bartlett, former executive officer of AL&T, was convicted Sept. 26, 1969, in U. S. District Court here on 26 counts of fraud. He was sentenced to five years in prison and $5,000 fine on one count and to three years on the other counts. The sentences were to be served simultaneously.

The 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals previously had rejected Bartlett's appeal.

Don Gillaspie, Bartlett's lawyer, said he probably would ask the Supreme Court to reconsider its refusal to hold a hearing on the matter.

Manager of the new TG&Y Store in the Hervey Square Shopping Center is Frank Turley, recently transferred to Hope from Shreveport.

Turley and his wife Eleanor have two children, Marcus, 4 years old and Kristine, age 10 months. They are members of Our Lady Of Good Hope Catholic Church. Mrs. Turley is a member of the Newcomers Club and Catholic Women's Sodality. Frank's hobbies are fishing, hunting, swimming, tennis and golf.

In assuming management of the new store, Turley said, "I feel the most important ingredient in a retail operation is customer service. The customer will always come first at TG&Y." "We have endeavored to bring to Hope and Hempstead County a tremendous variety of merchandise. In the initial stages of setting up our new store in Hope, I had one thought in mind, and that was to try and merchandise our store for the people of Hempstead County."

"Your suggestions will be wanted and greatly appreciated, in respect to the types of merchandise that you want, for we are here to serve you the best way we possibly can."

"My family and myself want to thank you one and all for the tremendous welcome and warmth that we have received since arriving in Hope."

Co-managers of the new store are Calvin Smith and James Fox. Smith has been the local manager the past nine years. He and his wife Donna have three children. They are members of First United Methodist Church and Calvin is a member of Hope Lions Club.

James and Marilyn Fox have one son, James Anthony and are members of the Assembly of God Church.

Fox stated that his hobbies are bowling, playing chess, archery shooting and playing the guitar.

He stated that he and his family were delighted to be in Hope and that, "Our main ambition at TG&Y in Hope is to give the best service we can to the customer."

Central Still Rated Tops

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock Central, Little Rock Parkview and Blytheville continue to hold down the top three spots in The Associated Press high school basketball poll, but there has been some reshuffling in the lower echelons of the top 10.

Subiaco is ranked fourth, followed by Fayetteville Stephens, Stuttgart, Jonesboro Westside, Desha Central and Hardy Highland.

for a number of years, the chain has increased the number of stores every year.

As most area residents will recall, Scott Stores, a subsidiary of City Products, merged with T. G. & Y. in 1969 - when the present downtown store took on the T. G. & Y. name. Scott operated 110 stores in 18 states, with most of its outlets being clustered in the Great Lakes and Middle Western states. This merger brought all of City Products' company-owned variety stores into the T. G. & Y. Division. City Products

U.S. Weather Unseasonable

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Unseasonable mildness prevailed over large portions of the nation today.

A pocket of warm air covered the Northwest, while a large band of warmer than usual weather also favored the southern two-thirds of the nation. Temperatures climbed into the 80s Monday as far north as Kansas and set records from Oregon to Illinois.

From the northern Great Plains to the Upper Great Lakes, however, freezing temperatures and occasional snow held sway.

Cool conditions and scattered rain or snow also were reported in the Northeast.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 6 below zero at Cut Bank, Mont., to 72 at McAllen, Tex.

Some other reports: Anchorage 18 clear, Atlanta 48 partly cloudy, Boston 39 cloudy, Buffalo 36 cloudy, Chicago 42 cloudy, Cincinnati 46 partly cloudy, Cleveland 46 cloudy, Dallas 64 clear, Denver 42 partly cloudy, Detroit 35 cloudy, Honolulu 73 partly cloudy, Indianapolis 44 partly cloudy, Kansas City 54 clear, Los Angeles 56 cloudy, Louisville 59 clear, Miami 68 clear, Minneapolis-St. Paul 20 cloudy, Nashville 55 partly cloudy, New York 43 cloudy, Philadelphia 43 partly cloudy, Phoenix 60 clear, Pittsburgh 47 partly cloudy, St. Louis 47 clear, San Francisco 55 rain, Seattle 44 partly cloudy.

Corp. and its subsidiaries conduct a diversified business consisting principally of the sales of general merchandise through company-owned and franchised stores, home furnishings and department stores.

Plans for growth of T. G. & Y. call for 1,000 stores by 1975, doing a volume of about $800,000,000. The firm is scheduled for a 15 to 20 per cent increase per year for the next five to seven years. Additional warehouse will be needed to service the new stores. Besides the nine warehouses now in operation, states now being considered for future warehouses are South Carolina, Texas, and Florida.

T. G. & Y. considers their stores to be of three classes: one is the expanded variety store, primarily convenience merchandise ranging to about 15,000 sq. ft. and carrying limited junior department store lines; secondly, the family center unit ranging from 20,000 to 30,000 sq. ft. Depending upon the size of these family center units, they go heavily into sporting goods, hardware, wearables, fabrics, automotive lines, and several other departments, considering the needs of the community.

Some of these may include an auto center or outdoor garden and lawn sales. District offices for the Hope Family Center are located in Shreveport, Louisiana, with B. M. Waller as District Manager and J. V. Woody as immediate supervisor. Mr. Woody and Mr. Waller have selected Frank Turley, who formerly resided in Bossier City, Louisiana, to manage this new unit. Mr.

Turley has worked as Co-Manager at two of the larger Family Center Stores in Shreveport. He and his wife, Ellie and two children are now residing in Hope and are proud to be a part of such a fine city.

The Co-Managers of this store are Calvin Smith, who formerly managed the downtown store, and James Fox who transferred to Hope, from Shreveport. Mr. Turley, Mr. Smith, Mr. Fox and Mr. Woody have worked with the buyers in the Oklahoma City office to get a complete assortment of variety merchandise, plus broadening the assortment to establish a Sporting Goods Dept., a Fabric Shop, a Wearable Fashions Dept., a Photography Dept., plus many other expanded lines. You'll find many items not normally stocked in the variety store. For instance, you'll be amazed at the huge assortment of Drygoods and the name brands carried. The quality and assortment of Fabrics are some of the best to be found anywhere.

Your new T. G. & Y. Family Center is designed to make shopping a pleasure...summer and winter air conditioning for comfort, high intensity lighting for perfect viewing of merchandise and modern multi-level fixtures for easy shopping. A colorful decor, presenting a relaxing atmosphere will delight every shopper.

"Our opening this unit in Hope is just a part of the fabulous growth", Mr. Woody, Supervisor said. "We are proud of this new store and we are proud to be a part of a growing city. We hope each and everyone of our fine customers will enjoy shopping our new store."

Reader Practices All the 'Dos'

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — Let me congratulate you on your sensible approach to issues regarding body care. After all we agree on almost everything. Therefore, you must be a sensible man. I am a 46-year-old male, married to the same woman for 23 years. My health is excellent. I ride my bicycle for miles each week and have all my life. I weigh 185 pounds but no fatness except for a double chin. I am 6-foot-one in my stocking feet. I avoid all forms of tobacco, have very little alcohol because I despise the damn stuff, don't eat between meals and exercise regularly. I have been chock-full of energy and have that zipping feeling of muscles and brain working in smooth harmony. Drugs, other than an aspirin now and then for headache, are out. As far as diet, I was raised in a vegetarian home and never ate meat until going into the Army at 18. I now eat meat three to five times a week, but only fowl, fish or steak, occasionally hamburger, never any pork. I still have my hair and teeth.

My question concerns a statement by Dr. Paul Dudley White. He said that a person should maintain the body weight that he or she had at age 22 or 23. Well, I weighed 150 pounds nude and have gained 35 pounds since. Actually, I started to gain around 28. My body looks better, but I am concerned about what damage it might do to my heart. My family lives forever. I have known five great grandparents and buried my first grandparent when I was in my 30s. Do you think Dudley's Law applies in my case?

Dear Reader — I can tell from your remarks that you are one of my most sensible readers. You have a lot going for you. Just not using tobacco goes a long way toward

Hurler Dizzy Trout Dies

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul "Dizzy" Trout, 56, colorful pitching star for the Detroit Tigers in the World War II era, died Monday of stomach cancer.

Trout, who worked as a pitching instructor, public relations man and after-dinner speaker for the Chicago White Sox since 1969, was a 27-game winner in 1944 and led the Tigers to the 1945 American League pennant. In a major league career from 1939 through 1952, Trout posted a won-lost record of 170-161 with an earned-run average of 3.23. He won 20 or more games in 1943 and 1944.

His most remarkable feat, however, was his stretch run in 1945 which gave the Tigers the pennant and an eventual World Series triumph over the Chicago Cubs in seven games. He pitched six games in 10 days and won four.

Trout was traded to the Boston Red Sox in 1952 and retired after that season.

SPORT SHORTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The Memphis Pros of the American Basketball Association have signed free agent Elmer Webster, a former star at St. Peter's College.

In signing Webster Monday, the Pros released rookie guard Jerry Dover, who had seen only limited action. Webster had been placed on waivers by the New York Nets.

VANCOUVER (AP) — Ray Nettles, a middle linebacker at the University of Tennessee, has signed to play with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League the club announced Monday.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The largest living land animal is the African elephant. The World Almanac says that the largest specimen recorded was a bull elephant shot in Angola in 1955. It measured 13 feet, 2 inches, from the shoulder to the base of its foot, weighed about 12 tons and is preserved in the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

Female deer weigh from 125 to 175 pounds on the average, with a few reaching 250 pounds.

4,000 Are Homeless as Flood Cleanup Begins

By CRAIG AMMERMAN
Associated Press Writer
MAN, W. Va. (AP) — With 16 Appalachian coal camps in flood-devastated ruin, relief agencies began in earnest today the job of finding living quarters for the thousands of homeless from Buffalo Creek hollow.

Many persons still were reported missing in the wake of Saturday's flash flood and the death toll stood today at 67.

More than 4,000 persons were left homeless following the flood, caused when tons of water broke through a mining company dam and spilled through the hollow.

Officials of federal and relief agencies Monday night cleared the books out of the public library and began setting up offices to provide emergency aid.

Monday afternoon the Federal Housing Administration began taking applications for emergency housing. By mid-night they had received 150 with more still coming in.

National Guardsmen manning bulldozers and other heavy equipment, continued to sift debris in search of bodies and survivors.

Surveying the splintered buildings and twisted metal frames of cars in the community of Lundale, perhaps hit hardest by the raging floodwaters, State Police Cpl. Walter Garrett said: "We estimate that 1,000 people or more lived here. Now there's nothing left but the company store."

Officials reported Monday night they had accounted for 158 survivors from the community of Lorado who had escaped the flood by scaling a hill to another town.

Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va., toured the area Monday and pledged prompt federal aid to help rebuild the 17-mile-long hollow if existing programs prove insufficient.

Public health teams began administering typhoid inoculations at Red Cross centers throughout the county.

Resolutions calling for an investigation into the dam break were proposed Monday in the legislature.

Taiwan Says Nixon IRS Advice Is Sometimes Wrong Sold Out Friends

By LEONARD PRATT
Associated Press Writer
TAIPEI (AP) — Nationalist China's premier and its National Assembly accused President Nixon today of selling out old friends and said Chiang Kai-shek's government cannot forgive him for negotiating with Communist China.

"The Chinese Communist regime is a rebel group which has no right to represent the people of mainland China," said a resolution adopted by the assembly. "The people and government of the Republic of China cannot forgive the negotiations which President Nixon has conducted with them."

The assembly was elected in 1948, before Chiang was expelled from the mainland, and meets every six years to re-elect him president.

The resolution joined the Foreign Ministry in warning that Chiang's government will consider "null and void" any agreement reached between Nixon and the Communists concerning the Nationalists.

Premier C. K. Yen—without mentioning Nixon by name—accused the President of betraying his own principles and his Nationalist friends by bargaining with the regime in Peking.

"Some non-Communist countries, lacking in foresight and oblivious of the difference between right and wrong or advantage and disadvantage, have given up their principles and come to consider foes as friends," Yen told the assembly.

"As a result, they have played into the hands of the enemy."

Neither Yen nor the assembly resolution made any mention of Nixon's pledge in his joint statement with the Communists that the United States would withdraw its forces from Taiwan as tensions in Asia tapered off. This also was ignored in the earlier Foreign Ministry criticism.

But the Foreign Ministry gave the impression the Nationalists suspect Nixon agreed to more than was disclosed in the communiqué with Chou En-lai.

It said President Chiang and his government will disregard "any agreement which has been, and which may not have been, published involving the rights and interests of the government of the Republic of China."

"Our question can be solved only when the government of the Republic of China ... has succeeded in its tasks of the recovery of the mainland, the unification of China and the deliverance of our compatriots," it added.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spot check shows Internal Revenue Service officials sometimes give the public wrong information about wage-price controls.

Posing as businessmen, Associated Press newsmen in five cities asked a standard set of questions by telephone, one concerning prices and one about wages. In six of the 10 cases the IRS answers were either wrong, when compared with government regulations, or too vague to be of use.

In one instance an IRS man suggested that the caller get around pay regulations by using a tactic of questionable legality.

These findings raise questions about how well wage-price guidelines can work if they confuse even the government officials enforcing them.

However, the spot check is based on only 10 questions, a tiny fraction of the tens of thousands of public inquiries about pay and price matters that the IRS handles each month. Also of note is that the check comes as the IRS is neck-deep in its primary task of collecting 1971 income taxes.

Since the spot check was made the IRS independently has begun its own program of monitoring its answers to questions from the public, a spokesman said in Washington.

Highlights of the AP spot check:

—A Los Angeles IRS official advised a newsmen posing as a garage owner that he could give his mechanics a raise above the Pay Board's 5.5-percent guideline if he would "promote them to a new job title." Such a bogus promotion would almost certainly violate federal regulations.

In fact, the IRS man himself cautioned the caller that he might be questioned if a government spot check disclosed the questionable move. "It's a risk you have to take if you want to give them a raise," he said. He did not mention the penalty, up to a $5,000 fine, for violating wage-price guidelines.

—A New York IRS official wrongly told a caller posing as the owner of a dry-cleaning store that he would have to post lists of his base prices and that his profits could not exceed 2.5 per cent a year. Only large retail stores must post prices, not service firms such as dry-cleaning stores. And, nowhere in the Price Commission's regulations is there any mention of a 2.5-per-cent limit on profits.

—In Boston, an official rightly told the "dry cleaner" that he could raise prices to cover increased costs, but failed to mention that profit margins cannot be raised above those that prevailed over two of the last three fiscal years.

—New York and Atlanta callers, both posing as the garage owner who wanted to give raises to his employees, were not given detailed advice about a rule that might well have helped him. This rule says that the Pay Board will grant an exception allowing raises of up to 7 per cent for a firm that can prove it needs to attract or hold essential employees. The fictional garage owner said he wanted to keep his skilled employees, but was told he couldn't give any more than a 5.5-per-cent raise.

HE CAME PREPARED
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Police booking a 26-year-old man who had escaped from the Sullivan County, Tenn., jail found four hacksaw blades in one shoe and seven in the other. Apparently he hadn't planned on staying too long in the Indianapolis jail either.

Here is the second hand of Culbertson's "Battle Royal." He was refereeing a match between two married couples and assessing fines up to $10 for mistakes.

Today we find the husband who made the bad opening lead yesterday sitting North. There was nothing wrong with his spade raise and his wife wound up in a normal four spade contract.

The other husband made his normal lead of the heart-king and continued the suit. South ruffed the third lead with the deuce of trumps. It would have been better technique to ruff with the jack but it made no difference.

She entered dummy with the jack of clubs and led the 10 of spades for a finesse. West took his king and led back a trump. South drew trumps; entered dummy with the queen of diamonds. East covered with the king. South took her ace; led the nine; finessed successfully against West's 10 and made the rest of the tricks.

Ely wanted to see if any player had noticed anything wrong and proceeded to fine the lady sitting East $2.50 for covering the queen of diamonds.

He explained that it was only a minimum fine because she had made the sort of bad play that usually goes unnoticed but that it is standard good play not to cover the first of equal honors led through you.

400 Out for Celebration

WASHINGTON (AP) — An estimated 400 persons turned out to help former Sen. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana celebrate his 90th birthday.

Wheeler, who has been practicing law here since his retirement from the Senate after World War II, represented Montana in the upper chamber for 24 years.

During the Harding Administration he was a key figure in exposing the Teapot Dome scandal involving the leasing of federal oil lands in Wyoming and California to private firms.

Lebanon Moves in Army to Check Guerrillas

By FAROUK NASSAR
Associated Press Writer
BEIRUT (AP) — The Lebanese army moved into the stronghold of the Palestine guerrillas in southeast Lebanon Monday, raising the prospect that it would check guerrilla raids across the border into Israel.

"This time we intend to occupy the guerrilla positions and keep them," said a Lebanese colonel.

Guerrilla leader Yasir Arafat met with Arab ambassadors in Beirut. Egypt's Middle East News Agency reported he asked them to prevent the Lebanese government from curbing guerrilla activity in the 100-square-mile area which the government turned over to the Palestinians months ago.

The Lebanese troops advanced in the wake of withdrawing Israeli forces who claimed they killed about 50 guerrillas and wounded nearly 100 in four days of air and ground attacks that left the Palestinians' stronghold in the Akroub region "in complete disarray."

An Israeli military spokesman in Tel Aviv said Israeli casualties totaled 11 wounded and that all had returned to duty.

Communists from the guerrillas put their losses at 20 dead and 36 wounded, and Lebanese sources reported two civilians and 10 Palestinian refugees killed.

The Israeli attack began Friday in retaliation for guerrilla raids last week that killed five Israelis. As the Israeli forces withdrew Monday, they left leaflets in Arabic warning of further assaults unless the Lebanese government halted guerrilla activity. They also warned the villagers to remove the guerrillas from their midst or expect more damage to their homes and villages.

The U.N. Security Council in a resolution voted unanimously early Monday demanded that Israel stop her attacks and withdraw from Lebanon.

ties, Rosen said.

How did he arrive at his guest list?

"We let the foreign consuls and the foreign airlines know we're around and ... well, you know," Rosen said modestly. "Latin stewardesses and other visitors are anxious to get acquainted."

A band will play softly as the guests sip French champagne, nibble caviar and whisper soft words in the world's romance languages.

Four years ago the club, then known as the Twenty Niners, tossed a similar—but more expensive—Leap Year bash at one of Miami Beach's more famous hotels.

Then they advertised for guests, and got 5,000 applications. Twenty-nine women were invited, and the couples made merry amidst strolling violinists and liveried waiters.

But Cupid's bow was off the mark. For when the bachelors held a post-mortem, only two of those at the party had decided to tie the lovers knot.

They were divorced within a year.

There are no plans to activate either during the festi-

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — The legendary showdown at the O.K. Corral, meticulously re-created for CBS's "Appointment with Destiny" series Monday night, emerged as nothing more than a fight among eight vicious, shabby-morale men.

The research for the hour-long program denied the movies and TV series that have gone before, and cut the Earp brothers, Doc Holliday and the Clanton gang down to mortal size. The three Earps were "roving gamblers and lawmen," according to Lorne Greene's narration, and the Clanton gang was a bunch of boozing, quarrelsome ruffians. And the romantic Old West of Tombstone, Arizona territory in 1881 was a dreary, dusty little cowtown.

"You Are There" techniques of having actors play the parts and lacing the scenes with archive photographs, do not work. Historical events—even gun-fights—fail to come alive. Filling in small details with names and dates adds authenticity but slows the story telling. The use of sepia-colored film instead of color or black and white gave the viewer a slight sense of looking at a moving daguer-type but did nothing to enliven the proceedings.

Next in the series, late in March, will be "The Crucifixion of Jesus," shot in Jerusalem. The producers of "Appointment with Destiny" certainly move on a broad front in their search for subject matter.

The return of President and Mrs. Nixon to Washington, covered by the three networks, postponed the later evening's scheduled programs by 45 or more minutes. None of the networks pre-empted a show for the welcoming ceremonies.

Whatever the reasons, the United States must decide again, as it has in the past, which way it is to go: more trade through open markets or less trade because of restricted markets.

amazing performance of Japan. And in government-industry cooperation it can learn from a dozen nations.

And while the country faces a new economic world, it must also adjust domestically to factors that seem to be exerting a strong drag on its ability to produce efficiently.

Strikes, the lack of enthusiasm in spending for research and development, the lack of access to training in labor skills, the oligarchic nature of pricing in some areas of the economy have all weakened productivity.

There is the likelihood also that Americans are slightly more inclined to settle for security rather than compete for the dazzling prospect of a higher economic level, which was one of the great lures to productivity.

Inflation, of course, makes American goods less competitive abroad. And since it puts money into the hands of buyers, it tends to make the market for foreign goods more attractive.

What ever the reasons, the United States must decide again, as it has in the past, which way it is to go: more trade through open markets or less trade because of restricted markets.
